

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

Governor Signs Prohibition Bill On Tuesday at 10 O'clock a. m. Atlanta, Aug. 7.—At 10 o'clock on Tuesday, Governor Smith signed the prohibition bill as passed by the Georgia legislature and the measure now becomes a law upon the statute books of Georgia.

The request came to the governor from a number of ardent prohibitionists that he would fix a particular day at which he would sign the bill, as they wished to be present at the time, and, in accordance with this request, he named the hour stated.

Scholars and soldiers absorbed the entire time of the general assembly Monday, when the first double session of the year was held. The general assembly considered for a session, that was afterwards passed over without adoption, and a third of the second session, amended and adopted, as far as read.

The morning session Monday was consumed with the discussion as to whether the special tax for educational purposes should be raised from one and seventy-one hundredths mills to one and eighty one hundredths mills. This was finally agreed to. The afternoon was mainly devoted to the question whether the Confederate veterans should be exempted from special license taxation.

As soon as the work had seemingly been completed in the morning, the Governor of DeKalb gave notice that he would ask for a reconsideration on the section acted upon, and would offer a substitute which would give to the governor and comptroller control of the right to fix the tax rate on all appropriations, not to exceed the constitutional limitation of 10 mills.

In the afternoon those special taxes on professional and trade services were taken up, and in nearly every instance some one would come up with an amendment in the paragraph under consideration, "excepting all confidential persons from this specific tax."

Monday morning Senator Deen introduced a bill in the senate which, when passed into law, will make it unlawful to sell or give away cocaine, opium, hashish, heroin, chloral hydrate, etc., without a physician's prescription.

The Wright anti-lobbying bill was the special order for Wednesday, and 100 copies of the bill were printed.
